Everyone who comes to Mass MUST sanitize their hands before entering the church, even those who are wearing gloves. Germs can live on latex and material gloves.

Gospel Reflection

Who do you say I am?

In the gospel today, as Jesus is walking with his followers, he turns and asks them a direct and somewhat strange question; 'Who do people say that the Son of Man is?' They offer him a list of names that they have probably heard in the market place and on street corners. None of these seems satisfy him.

Jesus responds with a more personal and demanding question; 'But you, who do you say that I am?' There is a sense that with this second question Jesus is not interested in gossip, rumours or hearsay. He is asking and looking for a very personal and heartfelt response from his closest friends. He doesn't want second hand or even fake news!

Peter is rewarded for his faithful response by being given a new name; Peter the Rock upon whom the church will be built. This is a great affirmation and start for Peter.

Imagine standing with you Jesus right now. He looks at you, calls you by your name and asks, 'Who do people that the Son of Man is?' Like those in the gospel, you might offer a list of names you have heard others use or read in books. Jesus looks directly at you and then asks, 'But you, who do you say that I am?' This is a very different and challenging question that requires some response on our part. You have heard the question, what is your response?

This question of faith is still one that is asked of each of us today. Hopefully we meet and encounter Jesus though each other, in the Word of God and through the life of the sacraments. We are also being called and invited by Jesus to have a deep personal relationship with him on a daily basis. This does not mean that this is private; just between myself and Jesus; my friendship with Jesus is personal but never private. As a follower of Jesus, I am always connected to something bigger and richer than just myself; the Church – the Body of Christ.

Today and over the coming days, take a little time to hear and listen to Jesus asking you personally, 'who do you say that I am?'
