The Society of Saint Vincent de Paul ministry is about giving of yourself and allowing you to both answer God's call to service and to respond to needs within our immediate community.

We are currently seeking volunteers to fill our executive team. Individuals with good verbal and communication skills, leadership skills, and a great motivator. Volunteers that can assist with Bundle weekends, preparing annual reports, has some finance background, social justice, and other administrative duties.

If interested please call our direct line 416-226-0262 ext. #6 and leave your contact information.

Society of Saint Vincent de Paul "Back to School Help" Project

The children are back at school in a few weeks, with parents facing all the usual expenses plus those extras arising from the pandemic. An especially difficult time for our low-income neighbours. If you can assist please put your donation in an envelope and mark it St Vincent de Paul Back to School and drop it in the Sunday offering Basket in the foyer. The Poor Box is back in the foyer now, and your donations allow us to continue to assist the needy of our area. Thank you so much for your support.
