" Seniors' Matter" Loneliness and Isolation Parishioners and Community

Prior to Covid19 pandemic, the CWL has always had a group of members who called other members to keep in touch with them. Unfortunately, because of the pandemic many of our parishioners are unable to worship in church. With the use of technology some are able to watch the livestream Mass while others watch the daily televised Mass.

Many seniors are isolated and lonely and feel restricted in what they can do because of fear of the Covid virus. This trend has become a societal issue, and we would like our seniors to know and feel a sense connectedness and belonging in our parish.

As a faith community, we want to reach out to our parishioners and community to let them know that they are not alone "WE CARE". Many seniors are on their own but would like someone to give them a weekly call just to have a friendly chat, or to write them a letter or card. "WE ARE HERE FOR YOU."

Do you know anyone who would like to have someone give them a friendly telephone call? Would you like to write a card or letter to our seniors to let them know that we are praying and thinking about them? Please contact the church 416-226-0262.
