Our Children's Christmas Eve Mass December 24, 4:30 pm

Christmas Eve is a special time for children; it holds the promise of expectation and anticipation of hope for the future. Our preparations during Advent reach a culmination on this most Holy Night. Help your children understand the true meaning of Christmas by joining us at 4:30pm for an extraordinary Children's Christmas Eve Mass, as we invite the youngest members of our parish family to welcome the baby Jesus into our midst. They will have a special role to play in many aspects of this liturgy. Come celebrate with your family and share in the joy of a truly blessed Christmas!

We're asking each child to bring a non-perishable food item for the offertory procession.
