4th Sunday of Lent Reflection

Gospel: John 3.14-21 – Nicodemus Visits Jesus

Carrying our Crosses

In today's first reading we hear about how Moses received the Ten Commandments from God on Mount Sinai. The Church has always taught that the Ten Commandments are a gift that God has revealed to us to help us orient our lives in a way that best leads us to holiness. In the Gospels, in addition to teaching about the Ten Commandments, Jesus teaches about the importance of loving God and loving our neighbour. The Catechism states that the Ten Commandments "must be interpreted in light of this twofold yet single commandment of love, the fullness of the Law".

As we are in this penitential season of Lent let us take some time to reflect on how well we are living up to these commandments. One common way of doing this is to perform an examination of conscience. This involves reflecting on our own lives in light of the Commandments and their related sins. This isn't meant to be a sadistic practice of self-loathing but rather an opportunity to see in which ways we can grow in deeper love for Christ and our neighbour.

Confession always remains a place of victory for the Lord as we are achieving our salvation through the forgiveness of our sins. To be reconciled with God is always a source of celebration. Let us not look to our examination of conscience and confession as a place of guilt and defeat. Instead, this Lent let us be cleansed through the grace of the sacrament so that we may grow as ever holier stewards of Christ.

The mission of the Daughters of St. Paul is to be St. Paul living today by spreading the Gospel of Jesus Christ through all forms of media. One way we do this is by visiting parishes across Canada with the fruits of our prayer and work: books, faith formation resources and media produced by our Sisters and other solid Catholic authors.

As part of the Pauline Parish Book Fair, our Sisters would be available before and after the Masses on the weekend of March 23/24. We look forward to seeing you.
