Act of Mercy: Praying for the Dead

From All Saints Day (Nov. 1) through Nov. 8 each year, the Church offers a special grace: the opportunity to obtain a plenary indulgence to aid the Holy Souls in Purgatory. To help you take part in this beautiful tradition, cards with information and instructions will be available in the foyer next weekend. Please take one home and prayerfully consider this act of mercy for our faithful departed.

PRAYER CANDLE

A limited number of prayer candle kits will be available in the foyer this weekend. The kit includes a candle in a glass jar, a permanent marker, and a leaflet on the significance of praying for the faithful departed during the month of November. Families can write the names of their loved ones on the candle and pray the prayer on the candle during family prayer time.

OUR TREE OF REMEMBRANCE

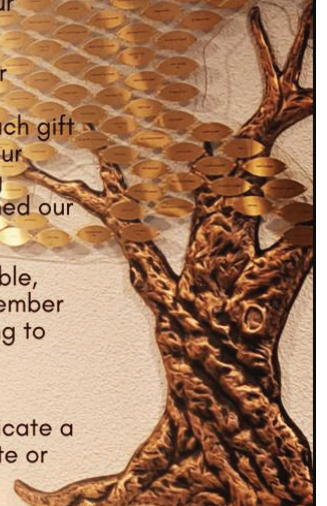

*Remember. Honor.
Renew Our Home.*

As we gather for All Souls Day to remember our loved ones who have gone before us, we celebrate the deep roots of faith that unite our parish family.

In their memory, please consider making a donation to the Our Spiritual Home Campaign. Each gift will be honored with a leaf on our beautiful Donor Tree – a lasting tribute to those who have touched our lives with faith and love.

With over 250 leaves still available, this is a meaningful way to remember those we hold dear while helping to restore and renew our beloved spiritual home.

Details on how to give and dedicate a leaf can be found on our website or through the parish office.
